Carrickfergus Child Contact Centre has been open since 2008. We are a charitable organisation that works with separated families to provide a safe, child friendly place for family members to spend time together. Our work looks to build family connections and grow a loving relationship between parent and child. We work with children aged 0-17 years and our centre opens 52 weeks a year!
We are looking for new volunteers to come and join our team on Thursday afternoons (3.30-6.15pm) or Saturday mornings (9.30am-12.15pm). Volunteers can help once or month, fortnightly or weekly, whatever suits you! You will get training and enjoy volunteers' team building days and our annual Christmas Night out.
If you can spare some time to help support us in supporting our families please contact Shelly McCord on 0846033804 or email contact@carrickccc.co.uk or call into the centre during running times (marked above) to chat and meet some of our fantastic volunteer team! Thank you
