

Parish of Carrickfergus and Whitehead
Choosing Music for a Requiem Mass or Funeral

Below is a list of both traditional and contemporary sacred music commonly used within funerals. All pieces here are covered by the licenses we hold or are now in the public domain.

We recognise that music is an essential aspect of any liturgy and that the choice of music can be very personal. If there is a particular piece of sacred music you wish to be sung that does not appear here, please do speak to the person you have engaged to provide the music for your loved ones' funeral.

*Please note, the Parish does not have permission for any secular or popular music to be sung or played.
